On October 20, 2004, Ismail Elbarasse and his wife were arrested for suspicious behavior as they were videotaping the bridge supports along the Chesapeake Bay Bridge. A subsequent FBI search of Mr. Elbarasse's home found a hidden sub-basement full of documentation of the Muslim Brotherhood operations in North America.

Among the boxes of evidence were countless documents used by the prosecution in the "US Government vs. the Holy Land Foundation" trials. The Holy Land Foundation was a front group raising money for Islamic terrorism. This was the largest case of terrorism financing ever prosecuted in the history of the United States. One incriminating piece of evidence was the "Muslim Brotherhood Strategy for North America" which included the following excerpt outlining their goal of overthrowing the United States Government. All of the documentation was "stipulated" by the defense attorneys, meaning the defense conceded that it actually was what the prosecutors said it was.

4- Understanding the role of the Muslim Brother in North America:

The process of settlement is a "Civilization-Jihadist Process" with all the word means. The Ikhwan must understand that their work in America is a kind of grand Jihad in eliminating and destroying the Western civilization from within and "sabotaging" its miserable house by their hands and the hands of the believers so that it is eliminated and God's religion is made victorious over all other religions. Without this level of understanding, we are not up to this challenge and have not prepared ourselves for Jihad yet. It is a Muslim's destiny to perform Jihad and work wherever he is and wherever he lands until the final hour comes, and there is no escape from that destiny except for those who chose to slack. But, would the slackers and the Mujahedeen be equal.

The last page of the "Memorandum for North America" listed the Muslim Brotherhood front groups that were operating in North America as of May, 1991. This list included the Islamic Society of North America (mosques), the Muslim Student Association (college outreach and recruiting), North American Islamic Trust (owns properties) and the Islamic Association for Palestine out of which CAIR (public relations) was born in 1994, among others.

CAIR Since 1994

The Holy Land Foundation members were found guilty on 108 counts and sentenced to Federal Prison. CAIR, ISNA and NAIT appealed to have their names removed from the list of co-conspirators. US District Judge Jorge Solis ruled on July 1, 2009, that “The Government has produced ample evidence to establish the associations of CAIR, ISNA, and NAIT with Holy Land Foundation, the Islamic Association for Palestine, and with Hamas.” Authorities had planned to prosecute these groups. Unfortunately, Obama was elected in 2008 and Eric Holder was named Attorney General. These established “co-conspirators” of terrorism remain unindicted as the current Attorney General refuses to prosecute.

Case 3:04-cr-00240-P Document 1356 Filed 07/01/09 Page 15 of 20 PageID 27137
These two groups are seeking building permits in Edmond.

Government has produced ample evidence to establish the associations of CAIR, ISNA and NAIT with HLF, the Islamic Association for Palestine (“IAP”), and with Hamas. While the Court recognizes that the evidence produced by the Government largely predates the HLF designation date, the evidence is nonetheless sufficient to show the association of these entities with HLF, IAP, and Hamas. See U.S. v. Ladd, 218 F.3d at 704-05 (“the Government must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that a conspiracy existed”). Thus, maintaining the names of the entities on the List is appropriate in light of the evidence proffered by the Government.

Government Exhibit 3-85 is titled “An Explanatory Memorandum on the General Strategic Goal for the Group in North America,” authored by Mohamed Akram of the Shura Council of the Muslim Brotherhood and dated May 22, 1991. (Gov’t Ex. 3-85 (Elbarasse 3) at 21.) The “Explanatory Memorandum” includes a section titled “Understanding the role of the Muslim Brother (Muslim Brother) in North America,” which states that the work of the Ikhwan in the United States is “a kind of grand Jihad in eliminating and destroying the Western civilization from within and sabotaging its miserable house by their hands and the hands of the believers so that it is eliminated and God’s religion is made victorious over all other religions.” (Id.) Also contained in that document is a list of the Muslim Brotherhood’s “organizations and the organizations of our friends,” which includes ISNA, NAIT, the Occupied Land Fund (“OLF”) (HLF’s former name), and the United Association for Studies and Research (“UASR”). (Id. at 32.) Government Exhibit 3-64, titled “Preliminary vision for preparing future leadership” and dated December 18, 1988, further ties ISNA to the Muslim Brotherhood by listing it as an “apparatus” of the Brotherhood. (Gov’t Ex. 3-64 (Elbarasse 4) at 5.)

Last year, New York Congressman Peter King conducted an investigation and sent the following letter to Attorney General Eric Holder asking why the Department of Justice decided to stop prosecuting these unindicted co-conspirators. As of this date, no answer has been received. Of course Holder has been busy suing Arizona for attempting to enforce border security, suing Texas for requiring voters to produce ID before voting and he has also been busy smuggling guns to Mexican drug cartels. Who has time to prosecute terrorists?

The Honorable Eric H. Holder, Jr.

Re: United States v. Holy Land Foundation for Relief and Development, et al., 3:04-CR-0240-G.

Dear Attorney General Holder:

I write to inquire about your decision not to prosecute the 246 individuals and organizations, named as unindicted co-conspirators in a Hamas terror finance case, United States v. Holy Land Foundation.

I have been reliably informed that the decision not to seek indictments of the Council on American Islamic Relations (“CAIR”) and its co-founder Omar Ahmad, the Islamic Society of North America (“ISNA”), and the North American Islamic Trust (“NAIT”), was usurped by high-ranking officials at Department of Justice headquarters over the vehement and stated objections of special agents and supervisors of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, as well as the prosecutors at the U.S. Attorney’s Office in Dallas, who had investigated and successfully prosecuted the Holy Land Foundation case. Their opposition to this decision raises serious doubt that the decision not to prosecute was a valid exercise of prosecutorial discretion.

I request that you provide answers to the following questions:

- What are the reasons for the Department’s decisions not to prosecute CAIR, ISNA, NAIT and Mr. Ahmad, who is a CAIR co-founder and former head of the Palestine Committee of the Muslim Brotherhood in the United States?
- Who made the final decision not to prosecute? Who, if anyone, from the Executive Office of the President, consulted with, advised, or otherwise communicated with the Department of Justice, in electronic, oral or written form, regarding the Department’s decision not to seek indictments of CAIR, ISNA, NAIT and Mr. Ahmad?

- How does and will the Department and the Federal Bureau of Investigation address the potential for CAIR, ISNA, or NAIT to engage in terrorism financing? What policies with regard to those organizations have you implemented to address that threat?

The answers to these questions should provide some explanation for declining a prosecution that is strongly supported by the record from the Holy Land Foundation trial. As you are aware, in a previously sealed Memorandum Opinion Order of July 1, 2009, United States District Judge Jorge A. Solis declined CAIR, ISNA and NAIT’s August 14, 2007 and June 18, 2008 requests to strike their names from the United States Attorney’s list of unindicted co-conspirators in the Holy Land Foundation case. Judge Solis found that the “Government has produced ample evidence to establish the associations of CAIR, ISNA and NAIT with [the Holy Land Foundation, “HLF”], the Islamic Association for Palestine (“IAP”), and with Hamas.” The Court found that the evidence was “sufficient to show the association of these entities with HLF, IAP, and Hamas. Thus, maintaining the names of the entities on the List is appropriate in light of the evidence proffered by the Government” (citation omitted). At minimum, FBI testimony established that Mr. Ahmad attended a meeting in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in which participants discussed how they could support Hamas, including by raising funds for this terrorist group. NAIT was similarly unsuccessful in its subsequent request to the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit to have its name removed from the list of co-conspirators.

Hamas has been designated as a terrorist organization by the Department of State since October 9, 1997, and its status was reconfirmed by the most recent annual report of the National Counterterrorism Center, issued April 30, 2010. Hamas shamefully conducts cowardly suicide bombings against civilian targets inside Israel. Hamas also, between 2008 and 2009, conducted 2,614 indiscriminate rocket and mortar attacks upon residential areas in that country, an ally of the United States. According to the State Department, Hamas finances its terrorist activities “through state sponsors of terrorism Iran and Syria, and fundraising networks in the Arabian Peninsula, Europe, the Middle East, [and] the United States” (emphasis added). It raises the most serious question for the Justice Department to decline to even attempt to prosecute individuals and organizations, accused by a US Attorney and found by a federal judge, to have a nexus with fundraising for an organization which conducts terror attacks upon civilians.

I believe that in order to maintain the credibility of the Department, there should be full transparency into the Department’s decision. Please respond to this letter by April 25, 2011. If you have any questions regarding this letter, please contact Kevin Carroll at (202)226-8417.

Sincerely,

 PETER T. KING
 Chairman

Since the FBI and the Department of Justice prosecuting the Holy Land Foundation were planning on prosecuting the entire list of 246 co-conspirators of terrorism; and since US District Judge Jorge Solis upon review refused to remove the names of CAIR, ISNA, and NAIT from this list and instead restated that the evidence proved that they were tied to Hamas (a known terrorist organization) and their parent the Muslim Brotherhood; and since they are on record in “stipulated” documents stating their intent is to overthrow the United States government, does the City of Edmond really wish to grant building permits to these organizations?

We do not want Edmond to become the next Dearborn, Michigan. We must act now!
